

First CELLAR

CHAMPAGNE

VINTAGE CUVÉE, BILLECART-SALMON CHAMPAGNE, FRANCE, 2016

Established in 1818 by Nicolas François Billecart and Elisabeth Salmon, Billecart-Salmon remains a family-owned Champagne house for over two centuries. Today, Mathieu Roland-Billecart, the torchbearer of the seventh generation, upholds the proud legacy. The essence of their exceptional cuvées lies in the vineyards. The chalk and limestone soils, coupled with the region's cool climate, provide the perfect conditions for a truly mineral-driven Champagne. The 2016 vintage unveils aromas of citrus, green apple, and subtle hints of toasted brioche. The medium-bodied palate boasts flavours of juicy pear, lively lemon zest, and a delicate minerality. The finish is remarkably crisp and persistent, leaving a lasting and memorable impression.

DUVAL-LEROY, ROSÉ PRESTIGE PREMIER CRU, CHAMPAGNE, FRANCE

This Rosé Prestige is a generous and well-structure blend of lightly pressed Pinot Noir with a small amount of Chardonnay that shows a very subtle, medium-intense salmon colour and offers elegance and body. The bouquet releases aromas of wild cherries, red berries, with hints of ginger and geranium. The palate is full-bodied, delicate yet fresh, with an elegant texture and creamy effervescence.

WHITE WINE

CHARDONNAY, MÂCON-AZÉ, DOMAINE DE LA GARENNE BURGUNDY, FRANCE, 2021

Domaine de la Garenne is a family-owned winery in Burgundy's heart of the Mâconnais region. The vineyards, planted in 1986 are exposed South-East on a limestone vault and benefit from perfect sunshine, imparting a distinctive minerality and character to the wine. The 2021 is a full-bodied wine with a bright, fresh profile. The nose reveals aromas of citrus, honeysuckle, and a hint of white peach. The palate is crisp and lively, offering flavours of lemon curd, green apple, and a touch of minerality, leading to a clean, refreshing finish.

GRÜNER VELTLINER CHARMING, LAURENZ V KAMPTAL, AUSTRIA, 2019

Laurenz V, a venture established in 2004 by three ardent wine enthusiasts, is dedicated to showcasing Gruner Veltliner as a global treasure. Situated in the distinctive terroir of Kamptal, our vineyards are blessed with various soils, ranging from loess to primary rock. The Charming, our exclusive reserve wine, is a blend of individually crafted single-vineyard wines aged on the lees to enhance its complexity and add a touch of refinement. The 2019 displays vibrant aromas of ripe apple, honeysuckle, light vanilla, and toast. The medium-bodied palate is soft and juicy, supported by a fine fruit acidity and subtle minerality.

RIESLING KIEDRICHER, WEINGUT ROBERT WEIL RHEINGAU, GERMANY, 2022

Robert Weil, a renowned and historic winery in the Rheingau wine region of Germany, has been a beacon of quality since its founding in 1875. With a rich viticultural tradition spanning several generations, it is a testament to the region's winemaking prowess. Its vineyards, primarily situated on steep slopes along the Rhine River, benefit from the region's unique terroir and favourable microclimate, producing wines with a distinctive mineral intensity. The 2022 offers stone fruits, a touch of floral and clear, bright yellow fruity aromas and mineral traces. On the palate, it is light to medium-bodied, not entirely dry, and has mineral notes with a strong backbone of acidity, giving it a persistent finish.

PINOT GRIGIO ST. HELENA, FANTINEL FRIULI VENEZIA GIULIA, ITALY, 2023

Founded in 1969, Fantinel is a distinguished family-owned winery located in the northeast of Italy, known for its strong commitment to sustainable farming and traditional winemaking techniques. The St. Helena Pinot Grigio comes from the family's holdings in Friuli, benefiting from the region's clay and limestone-rich soils, which encourage the development of grapes with bright acidity and aromatic intensity. The 2023 offers ripe green apple, citrus, and white peach, with a hint of floral undertones and minerality. The palate is medium-bodied, with a crisp texture and fresh acidity, leading to a clean, refreshing finish with lingering citrus notes.

RED WINE

LES ALLÉES DE CANTEMERLE, CHÂTEAU CANTEMERLE BORDEAUX, FRANCE, 2016

Cantemerle is a historic estate dating back to the 16th century, was acquired by Jean de Villeneuve in 1579, marking the start of the Durfort family. Les Allées is the second wine of the estate, representing a refined expression of the house, enjoying the same gravel soil and the same meticulous attention as the grand vin. The 2016 opens with ripe blackberries, cassis, and plums with subtle notes of earthy spice. The palate is medium-bodied, with smooth tannins and vibrant acidity supporting the rich fruit profile. The finish is long and balanced, with a lingering minerality that adds depth.

CHÂTEAUNEUF DU PAPE, DOMAINE DES SÉNÉCHAUX RHÔNE VALLEY, FRANCE, 2020

The domaine traces its origins back to the 14th century, positioning it as one of the Rhône region's most ancient wineries. In 2006, the determined Cazes family from Bordeaux, renowned owners of Château Lynch Bages acquired the property. Their stewardship has led to an elevated standard of wine quality, resulting in an exceptional cuvée. The 2020 vintage unveils red and black berries, and warm spices, including notes of liquorice, cloves, and subtle hints of tobacco leaves. The palate is medium to full-bodied, showcasing nuanced aromas of cherry jam, liquorice, and the essence of Provençal herbs.

ROSSO DEI NOTRI, TUA RITA TUSCANY, ITALY, 2022

Founded in 1984 by Rita Tua and Virgilio Bisti in Tuscany, Tua Rita began as a modest 2-hectare vineyard. Over time, it expanded to 30 hectares, gaining acclaim for producing high-quality wines. In Maremma, the vineyard's soils are markedly clayey with pebbles and silt. This diverse terroir contributes to the wine's complexity and depth, allowing the grapes to develop rich flavours and balanced acidity. The 2022 offers blackberry, plum, and currant aromas with coriander, violet, and vanilla hints. The palate is full-bodied, with spice notes, fine tannins and a silky texture.

BLAUFRANKISCH REUNION PASSION, KRACHER & WIEDER MITTELBURGENLAND, AUSTRIA, 2015

Reunion is a joint project between two renowned Austrian wine producers, Kracher and Wieder. While Kracher is famous for his subtle, sweet wines, Wieder is considered one of the most important producers of red wines in Mittelburgenland. Their goal with Reunion was to create a wine that combines the opulence of Blaufränkisch with the cool style and elegance found in the Neckenmarkt region. The 2015 vintage offers dark fruit, exhibiting notes of ripe sour cherries, hints of herbs, and undertones of dark tobacco. On the palate, it is medium-bodied with velvety tannins, showcasing dark fruit notes followed by a distinctive minerality on the finish.

DESSERT WINE

SEMILLON BLEND, CHÂTEAU FILHOT SAUTERNES, FRANCE, 2015

The Château Filhot was founded in 1709 by Romain de Filhot and is now owned and managed by one of his descendants, Count Henri de Vaucelles and his son Gabriel. The vineyard was awarded 'Second Growth' according to the 1855 classification and fell under the Sauternes appellation. The Semillon and Sauvignon Blanc grapes are picked late in the season when the noble rot has shriveled the grapes, concentrating the sugar and acidity. The 2015 offers stone fruits, citrus fragrances, and notes of vanilla and honeysuckle on the nose. The palate is full-bodied with a plush texture, guava and grapefruit flavours, and a long, lingering finish.

FORTIFIED WINE

GRAHAM'S 20 YEARS OLD TAWNY PORT DUORO VALLEY, PORTUGAL

Graham's is one of the most iconic Port houses in the Douro Valley. Currently is owned by the Symington family, who are known for their sustainable viticulture and dedication to producing the finest Ports. This old Tawny is a blend of Ports that have been aged for an average of two decades in oak casks, developing aromas of dried fruits, caramel, roasted nuts, and a touch of orange peel. On the palate, it is medium-bodied, with velvety tannins and a creamy texture, balanced by vibrant acidity that maintains its freshness. The finish is long and elegant with notes of warm spice.

CIPRIANI

BELLINI

VENICE, ITALY, NV

The Bellini was invented in 1948 by Giuseppe Cipriani who first mixed white peach pulp and brut Prosecco. The cocktail was named after the Renaissance painter Giovanni Bellini whose masterpieces were exhibited in Venice that year. Just like Giuseppe's bar, the Bellini is a simple, yet complex cocktail. Its great success led it to become symbolic of Harry's Bar. This unique cocktail has an elegant and embracing bouquet of fruity freshness and evokes the sweetness of peaches. Cipriani Bellini makes for a delicious pairing with breakfast or a perfect aperitivo. Also available as a mocktail.
